PLATTE RIVER

Grand Island, NE
March 23-27, 2020

In the spring, the Platte River Valley of Nebraska becomes the great gathering place for the Sandhill Cranes. When 600,000 of the majestic cranes flock together, it is one of the greatest of wildlife spectacles.

An estimated 80 to 90 percent of the world's population of Sandhill Cranes makes the trek to this seventy mile strip of the Platte River annually. As we travel to Grand Island we'll stop along the way in Omaha, where we'll have a city tour, tour Offutt AirBase and have lunch at Big Mamas. In Lincoln we'll tour the Capital Building, the International Quilt Museum, and the Larsen Tractor Test Museum. The Crane Trust in Grand Island will be our hosts for a nighttime viewing as well as an early morning blind tour to witness the cranes settling in for the night and setting out in the morning in search of food. Leaving the cranes we'll overnight in St. Joseph, MO including a tour of the Pony Express Museum as we make our way home.
