

Prairie State Bank & Trust will never initiate a request for sensitive information from you via email or over the phone (i.e., Social security number, personal ID, password, card number, PIN or account numbers). If you receive an email requesting this type of sensitive information, you should be suspicious of it. We strongly advise that you do not share your personal ID, password, PIN or account numbers with anyone under any circumstances.